

HOUSING & WELFARE – CONFERENCE: Boundaries|Encounters|Connections

PRELIMINARY PROGRAMME

THURSDAY 7 MAY
09.00-09.30:	Registration & Coffee
09.30-09.45:	Welcome by CLAUS BECH-DANIELSEN , Head of Centre of Housing Research, Aalborg University
09.45-10.15:	Keynote: INGVAR SEJR HANSEN , Head of Division, Centre for Urban Development, City of Copenhagen
10.15-11.15:	Keynote: ADAM KHAN , Founder of Adam Khan Architects, London
11.15-11.30:	Coffee
11.30-12.30:	Keynote: ARNOLD REIJNDORP , Professor of socio-economic and spatial development, University of Amsterdam.
12.30-13.15:	Lunch / exhibition
13.15-13.30:	Review Release Reflect - an exhibition on Copenhagen tomorrow / PEDER DUELUND MORTENSEN , Assistant Professor, Royal Danish Academy of Fine Arts, School of Architecture Copenhagen
13.30-15.30:	DIALOGUE-SESSION: Urban transformation of Copenhagen's North Harbour / JENS KVORNING, Professor, Architecture, Urbanism and Landscape, Royal Danish Academy of Fine Arts, School of Architecture + RUNE BOSERUP, Project Manager, COBE Architects. Moderator: HANS THOR ANDERSEN, Research Director, Danish Building Research Institute	WORKSHOP 1 Polarization, inequality and affordable housing <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Diego Martinez Navarro: "Obsolescence and opportunity for social infrastructure: Tower of David, Caracas." 2. Mussarat Zaman, Arafath Hossain, Rayhanul Islam & Roxana Hafiz Ahmed: "Exploring an affordable housing solution for rmg workers in Dhaka" 3. Savas Zafer Sahin: - "The role of actors and corporate organisations in mass housing production in suburban development of Turkey" 4. Eli Støa: "Keeping distance – implications of diversified quality norms for housing standard" 5. Arna Mathiesen: "Housing in the Reykjavik capital area in the light of an economic meltdown in 2008"
15.30-16.00:	Coffee in the exhibition hall
16.00-18.00:	DIALOGUE-SESSION: Sustainable Urban Living / MALENE FREUDENDAL-PEDERSEN, Assistant Professor at Department of Environmental, Social and Spatial Change, Roskilde University + JAN ALBRECHTSEN, Vandkunsten Architects	WORKSHOP 2 Home, collective space and everyday life <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Laura Helene Højring: "How to produce knowledge through visual representations" 2. James O'Brien: "Welfare and the city" 3. Helen Ekstam: "Objective and subjective residential crowding in an everyday housing context" 4. Masashi Kajita: "Collective space and urbanity: Potentials of shared access routes in the multiple dwelling building" 5. Ofri Earon: "Architecture and living"
18.00-18.30:	5 minutes walk to the 1:1 urban laboratory "Paper Island" (Papir-øen) + introduction to the its current creative transformation by NICOLAI CARLBERG , Ethnologist and Urban Consultant
18.30:	Dinner, drinks and networking / Copenhagen Street Food – "The Paper Island"

FRIDAY 8 MAY
09.00-09.15:	Coffee & welcome
09.15-10.15:	Keynote: NIGEL THRIFT , Professor of Human Geography, University of Warwick
10.15-12:15:	DIALOGUE-SESSION: Social living & Social housing – Building communities / MIKKEL NORDBERG, Nordberg Holscher Architects, PIERRE D’AVOINE, Avoine Architects, MARK VACHER, Assistant Professor, Saxo Institute, University of Copenhagen Moderator: JOHN ANDERSEN, Professor, Department of Environmental, Social and Spatial Change, Roskilde University	WORKSHOP 3A Transformation and regeneration: Quality, involvement and open processes <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Han Wang, Beisi Jia: “Morphological transformation of the two Port cities in Southeast Asia – Malacca and Penang”. 2. Elena Manzo: “Urban Change. The western area of Naples, from agricultural villages to municipalities: plans, infrastructure and architecture.” 3. Terri Peters: “Fit for (re)purpose? Changing People and Spaces in Generations of renovations to social housing in Denmark” 4. Heidi Svenningsen Kajita: “About Appreciation and Care - Architectural Recordings” 5. Nezih Burak Bican: “Towards a sustainable social housing settlement: Decision-making process of renovation of Gyldenrisparken, Copenhagen”
12.15-13.00:	Lunch / exhibition
13.00-15.00:	WORKSHOP 3B Transformation and regeneration: Quality, involvement and open processes <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Michael Ulfstjerne: “That which is in between us: moods, materiality and vacancies in the city” 2. Kirstine Brøgger Jensen: “How to understand architectural quality when working with social housing areas” 3. Rodrigo Rieiro Díaz: “Co-creation, mass housing and the legacy of the everyday” 4. Elizabeth Donovan: “State housing revival- Sustainable regeneration strategies for post-war suburban state housing in New Zealand” 5. Tina Vestermann & Jacob Bjerre Mikkelsen: “Regenerating Østre Havn – the everyday of temporary use strategies 	WORKSHOP 4 Changing communities – housing, segregation and boundaries <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Lin Xiaoyu & Jia Beisi: “A Clear Boundary or a Culture mixed area: a case study of taishun county in premodern China”. 2. Sarah Valdez: “Immigrant Segregation and Visibility” 3. Michel di Marco: “Microrayons: Latvia Case”. 4. Barbara Elisabeth Ascher: - “Oslo – housing a divided city”. 5. Dr.Guliz Ozorhon, Dr.Ilker Fatih Ozorhon,: “An Issue of Housing in Post-2000 Turkey: An Istanbul-centered Review” 	WORKSHOP 5 Urban suburban – place, planning and density <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Ida Pirstinger: “Redensifying the European City” 2. Paul Kuitenbrouwer: “High Density low-rise as green hierarchy concept in the Netherlands” 3. Shunsuke Itoh: “A view from the boundary: residents’ perceptions of place in a suburban masterplanned community” 4. Bente Melgaard: “Study of urban space / urban life in the suburb”
15.00-15.30:	Coffee / exhibition
15.30-16.00:	Keynote & wrap up: MARIE STENDER , Anthropologist, PhD, Danish Building Research Institute, Aalborg University

SATURDAY 9 MAY	(Optional)
10.00-12.00:	Excursion: Exploring Copenhagen's new harbour areas in the South Harbour
12.00-13.00:	Lunch in Frederikshøj Allotment Gardens in the South Harbour